iFeedBack

iFeedBack is a single sign-on, instant feedback survey tool designed for college students.

Continue …

Configure and Setup

- Obtain a token from the single sign-on Web Service to access class survey sites.

Menu	Security Info	Success!
Choose Course	Username:	The new token is
Update Token	test01	001:111
Add Course	Password:
Submit Answers	pass01
Erase Cache	The current token is
Help	not valid
EXIT SELECT	MAIN UPDATE	OK

- Under the "Add Course" menu, click ADD to add the URL of a class survey site. You can repeat this process multiple times to add more classes.

Menu	Add a new course
Choose Course	Nickname:
Update Token	CS 301
Add Course	End Point URL:
Submit Answers	http://128.83.62.11:
Erase Cache	8000/iFeedBackSu
Help	rvey/servlet/Serv
	er
EXIT SELECT	MAIN ADD

Continue …

Fill Out a Survey

Choose a class site by its nickname ⟶ iFeedBack fetches the currently active question ⟶ Answer the question ⟶ click SAVE to save it in on-device cache.

NOTE: Use arrow key to move among choices

Use Send/Call key to mark selections

```
Menu
Choose Course
Update Token
Add Course
Submit Answers
Erase Cache
Help

EXIT          SELECT
```

```
Available Courses
CS 301

MAIN          SELECT
```

```
Question
How do you
evaluate the class
progress today?
Choices
☐ too slow, I already knew ☐ too fast, I do not understand
☒ about right
Comment:
MAIN    ▾    SAVE
```
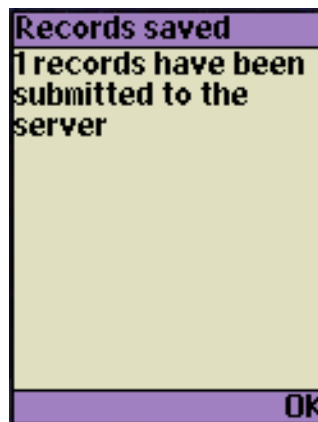

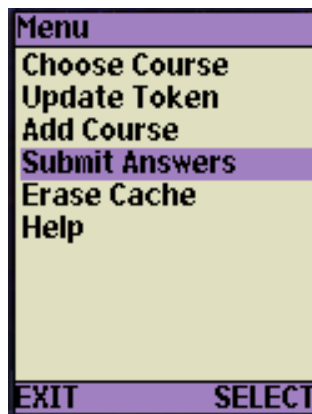

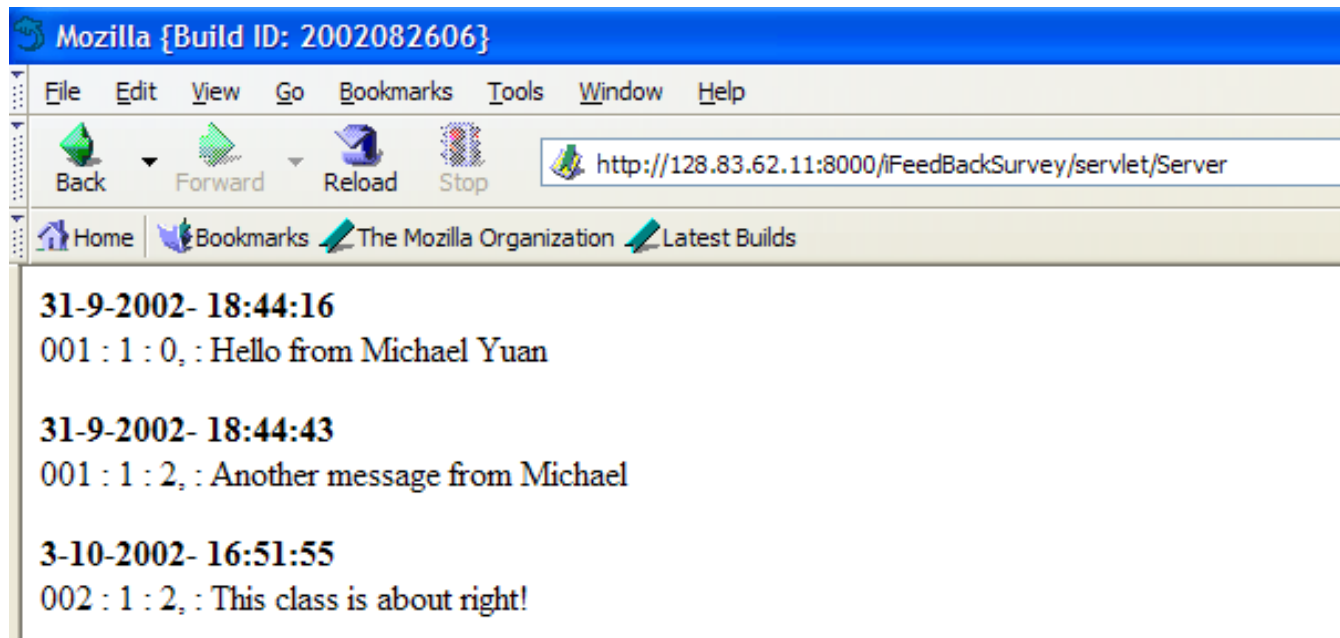

Continue …

Submit Answers

When the cache grows big, we can send all saved answers with their timestamps to their respective servers as a batch.

Menu
Choose Course
Update Token
Add Course
Submit Answers
Erase Cache
Help
EXIT	SELECT

Records saved
1 records have been submitted to the server
OK

Continue …

Administration

Point your browser to the class survey URL to see current submitted answers.

Finished